Over Patent Rights of

Albert Oberheim.

OGDEN, Dec. 1 .- Preparations for the development of an industry which is expected to mean much to Ogden were indicated today in the filing of articles of incorporation for the DeVine Safety

Razor company, which is composed entirely of Ogden and Salt Lake capitalists.

The objects of the new company are to manufacture and sell a safety razor of new design, invented and patented by Albert Oberheim of this city; also a combination razor case, strop and hone on which Oberhelm's patent rights are pending. The letters of patent on the Oberhelm safety razor were granted by the United States patent office on November of this recent

IMPORTANT WORK NEW SAFETY RAZOR IN NEVADA FIELD

Mountain Road Improvement Company Organized to Take and Telephone Line Have Been Accomplished.

Special to The Tribune. OGDEN, Dec. 2.-The completion of eight and one-half miles of mountain road and sixteen miles of telephone line constitute the most important improvements on the Santa Rosa national forest of Nevada for the past field season, according to W. W. Blakeslee, forest supervisor, who is now at the Ogden headquarters of the Fourth district for his annual detail work.

The automobile stage road of fortyfour miles from Winnemucca to Paradise valley, following along the west side of the Little Humboldt, is a good one, and the road now being constructed continues this across the Coon-Hinkey summit to the head of Martin creek. When six more miles are built next spring, heavily loaded teams and even automobiles, it is hoped, can proceed over into the Quinn River valley and on the north to the McDermitt Indian agency.

This is mainly the route of the soldiers many years ago when traveling from old Port Syott, four miles northwest of Paradis valley, to what was then Fort Mofruitt. It has hitherto been useable only by pack trains, it being necessary to travel by wagon a distance of seventyfive miles around the southern end of the Santa Rosa mountains from Paradise valautomobile stage road of forty

ing. The letters of patent on the Oberhelm safety razor were granted by the United States patent office on November 4 of this year.

While it is not the intention of the new company to manufacture the articles in this city. Ogden will be the home office of the company and this city will derive the benefits which are expected to result from the sale of the new articles. The contract for the manufacture of the Oberhelm patented devices in the United States, as well as the specially designed machinery for the manufacture of the articles, probably will be awarded to the Geneva Cuttery company of New York, according to J. H. DeVine, president of the new company. Sub-contracts for the manufacture of the razors will be awarded to cuttery firms in England. France, Germany and other European countries, patent rights having been secured in nearly all countries of the world.

No specific capitalization is included in the articles of incorporation, but it is specified that stock shall be issued in excess of $1,000,000. The incorporators and officers of the company are J. H. DeVine, president; J. N. Spargo, vice president; and officers of the company are J. H. DeVine, president; J. N. Spargo, vice president; and officers of the company are J. H. DeVine, president; J. Spargo, vice president; and the exception of Mr. Bamberger, who is a Salt Lake resident.

With shares of stock listed at the par value of $10, Mr. Oberhelm is the holder of 25,000 shares, given for letters of patent on his inventions. He is also the trustee for 49,940 additional shares, while the other six incorporators hold ten shares each, making the present capitalization $750,000. e muse around the southern end of the nia Rosa mountains from Paradise val-This road will effect a saving of ty-five miles in freighting grain, flour I fruit from Paradise valley to the inn River valley. OGDEN. Dec. 2.—Laboring under the delusion that he had arrested Raphael Lopez the Mexican outlaw, James Burrop, veteran resident of this city, brought J. J. Dalton, a Mexican, to police head-quarters at 4 o clock this afternoon for the purpose of having his man locked up. Burrop was armed with a 38 caiber automatic, and but for this fact he probably would have encountered considerable difficulty in "arresting" Dalton, who was angered as a result of the treatment accorded him. Burrop was locked up in the city iall on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, and the Mexican was also held for investigation of his case.

CABARET A FEATURE.

New Home of Weber Club to Be "House Warmed' on New Year's.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Dec. 2.—A New Year's celebration, for which it has been planned to combine all of the usual holiday merry-making with a cabaret show, is one of the first "house-warming" events planned for the new quarters of the Weber club in the Colonel Hudson building. The committee has already been appointed to "put over" this New Year's festival. While it was expected that the Weber club members would be installed in their beautiful new home by Thanksgiving the failure of the interior decorators to complete their work as originally planned caused another postponement of the "moving day." The move is now scheduled for December 10, although there is no absolute certainty that it will take place before the middle of the month. Upon application by the club officials, the barbers union of this city has granted a special permit for a barber who will be permanently located at the club. The permit was necessary in order that special hours might be observed.

Announcement has been made that the annual meeting of the Weber club members will be held in the new quarters on the evening of January 24, 1914, At that time officers and directors will be selected for another year. Special to The Tribune.

DID SMALL DAMAGE.

Wind High, but Not Destructive, Except to Window and Billboards.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Dec. 2.—Recapitulation of the effects of last night's windstorm indicated this morning that the damage, while quite extensive throughout the city, was not of a serious nature, nor would it represent any large amount of money. From 9 o'clock last night until sunrise this morning the wind prevailed from the mountains at a velocity of thirty to forty miles per hour.

A large plate glass window in the Wright department store had already been cracked by a previous storm and was completely shattered during the night, Billboards and trees were blown down in nearly all sections of the city. Fortunately no damage was done to the several new buildings in course of construction. Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Dec. 2.—Abiel Abbott, 77 years old a veteran of two Indian wars, died at the family home, 461 Twenty-seventh street, early this morning, following an illness of six months. His death was the result of lung trouble.

Ogden Marriage Licenses

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Dec. 2.—Contending that the youth of the city will remain at home if supplied with reading matter, Judge V. C. Gunnell of the juvenile court has arranged for a central bureau for the distribution of magazines. The bureau will be located at the book store of W. L. Bramwell, where all persons who cannot afford to buy current literature will be supplied free of charge.

According to Judge Gunnell's plan, those who feel themselves able to do so will be expected to pay a small amount for the magazines, but those not able to pay will be given magazines free. The juvenile judge appeals to all citizens of the city for their old magazines, but efforts will also be made to provide a fund for supplying a limited number of new magazines each month. HODGES OF BOISE GIVES HIS VIEWS

Governorship on Low Tax Propaganda.

BOISE, Idaho, Dec. 2.-Mayor Arthur Hodges of Boise is seriously considering secoming a Republican gubernatorial candidate, and has just issued a state ment looked upon here as a political 'feeler." the purpose of which is to ascertain how his prospective candidacy vould be taken over the state. In it he attacks the government of the state as being top-heavy, and declares that should he become a candidate and be elected governor he would put forth every ef-fort to lower taxes. His statement is in part as follows:

ort to lower taxes. His statement is in part as follows:

The primary campaign is a long ways off, and it is rather early for candidates, and at this time I do not care to definitely commit myself. However, I will say that I have received many solicitations from friends in different parts of the state to become a candidate for governor, and the encouragement I have received is gratifying, regardless of what my decision may be.

Should I become a candidate my candidacy will not be launched upon a sea of novel promises. Such promises have not given us perfect state government, nor lessened the burden of taxation, nor will they. There is only one way to reduce the great cost of state government which the taxpayers of this state are having to meet and that is to cut down some of its extravagant and needless expenditures in a practical way.

Our state government is top-heavy and we are going from high to higher taxes all the while. With its numerous costly commissions it is too cumbersome, and in my conion redief will taxes all the while. With its numerous costly commissions it is too cumbersome, and in my opinion relief will be found only by cutting off some of these needless expenses.

As a candidate for governor, I would not promise to revolutionize the ctate, for without the co-operation of the legislature any man who may be elected governor is powerless to accomplish much in the way of reducing taxation. One thing I would do, though, would be to exercise the veto nower vested in the governor to the limit, and do the utmost to give the people relief.
